Agency Operations

The commission advocates for the concerns of people with disabilities, expands economic opportunities for businesses owned by or employing people with disabilities, increases the general awareness of the rights and concerns of individuals with disabilities and their families, and ensures that people with disabilities have access to their government.

The commission is responsible for coordinating compliance by state agencies with federal and state disability rights laws. It also approves or modifies state and local government agency's Open Meeting Accessibility for persons with disabilities transition plans. The commission assists local boards of canvassers to ensure all polling places are accessible and approves or rejects requests to waive the state building code's standards for accessibility at facilities to be leased by state agencies. The agency investigates disability discrimination complaints involving physical barriers at public or private facilities and ordering corrective action. Small disadvantaged businesses owned and controlled by persons with disabilities or where sixty percent (60%) of the employees are persons with disabilities, or non-profit rehabilitation facilities with state funded and state-directed public construction contracts and state contracts for goods and services are assisted. Recommendations are made for improvements for enhancing enforcement of disability parking laws.

The Commission consists of 24 gubernatorial appointed Commissioners, a staff of 6.6 persons, several college fellows and many volunteers. The Commission's volunteers produce a weekly cable TV program ABLE TOO..., which airs Sunday afternoons at 2:30 and Friday evenings at 8:00 on RI's Interconnect Channel C.

The Commission's Mary Brennan Fellowship Program for college students with disabilities provides career experiences for students including editing the "Legislative Letter," (a weekly newsletter on legislation affecting people with disabilities), developing and updating the Commission's website: www.disabilities.ri.gov, and providing information regarding rights and services.
